This "TO/FROM" report should not be considered a verbatim statement but only a summary of requested information.

R/O's responsibility during the execution of the search warrant was to watch the perimeter of the building. R/O watched the perimeter and observed the complainant run out of the back of the building and attempt to flee. R/O secured his route of fleeing westbound. R/O also made entry and assisted with the search of the apartment. R/O also transported the complainant into the 004th District for processing.

R/O is unaware of what items were recovered from the search warrant other than the semi-automatic handgun, which was recovered from the bathroom.

R/O has no intimate knowledge as to what happened to the complainant's jewelry on his person or in his residence as R/O did not recover any jewelry. R/O did, after receiving this CR #, look up the inventories associated with the complainant and the search warrant. R/O did observe that the complainant had personal property described as a white metal chain that was inventoried.

R/O has no intimate knowledge as to any monies that were at the residence or recovered by officers during search warrant as R/O did not recover any money. R/O did, after receiving this CR#, look up the inventories associated with the complainant and the search warrant. R/O did observe that a bundle of USC totaling $4000 was recovered and inventoried.

R/O does not know who took possession of the complainant's jewelry or of any monies the complainant claims to have had.

R/O recalls that aside from the complainant, there were 4-5 other people inside of the apartment when R/O made entry to assist with the search.

FROM: P.O. Erich Rashan #10337
SUBJECT: Response to CR #1049392 (Page 2 of 2)

After reviewing the arrest report following R/O obtaining this CR#, the complainant was arrested for UUW by a convicted felon, possession of ammunition without a valid FOID card and PCS.

Addressing the allegations, R/O never took possession of the complainant's gold necklace. R/O never took possession, inventoried or refused to return any jewelry or USC that the complainant is alleging is missing. R/O did not physically arrest or seek charges against the complainant with regards to this search warrant. R/O did review the arrest report and agrees that those charges lodged against the complainant are appropriate and that the complainant was not falsely arrested.
